Committee Reports

Show and Sale: Justine commented that there was a meeting pending.

- Social Media: a cy of the official logo was sent to the BOD members.

Youth Update: Matt: Announced that Madison Feehan is the NTSRI queen. Matt also requests that we change the verbiage of the Tunis Queen to Tunis Ambassador. The BOD supports this decision and advised Matt to send a copy to Louise and Jessica.

Futurity: Louise Dunham: No report at the time of the meeting.

Scholarship Committee: Mark Swihart: There was a motion change to update the scholarship application. The motion to accept new application was made by Lloyd 2nd by Justine. The motion passed unanimously. Updates will be made to the website, and given to Louise, A copy will also be posted on the FB page.

Old Business: o NTSRI Directory follow-up: Dan Erwin: the next magazine will be published by April 1, 2024. Ads should be received by March 15th. There are plans to add the following items to the next issue:

- Post NAILE results
- National Sale Results
- Photo contest. 2 photos will be on the cover of the next issue of the Tunis Times
- Digital Database, follow-up: Dana asked Jeff Ebert if he had any information about the gentleman who is working on our digital database because he has not replied to Dana's request for information. Jeff will look into it, but he felt like he would get with us soon.
- Rebranding Committee Update: Jessica. There was no information to report at this time.
- Election Officers: Nathan Loux/Dana have received the eligible membership list and will be sending nomination forms soon.
- Budget Proposal for 2024: attached to this email. Kathy will send 2023 Budget Income to the members for their review and this item was tabled until the next meeting.
- NAILE Superintendent: Sue Anderson has relinquished her position as NAILE Superintendent. She spoke briefly about her time in that position and has all the records from the past show that she will share. Kelly proposed that Lloyd Arthur become the next NAILE Superintendent and he accepted the position. All members were in favor of this appointment.
- Regional Shows are being discussed. It was recommended that the Show and Sale Committee determine Protocol for Tunis.
 - Double futurity points will be discussed in a future meeting.
 - Give parameters to the All-American Junior Show Staff about showing wethers, and clarification on faults and disqualifications at the scales. We will look at other breeds qualifications to determine any changes that might be made moving forward.

New Business:

Rates for CD's was discussed. Kathy will look into the rates before the next meeting.

Next BOD Meeting Date: Monday, March 4th, 7:30 pm est
